Design Model

Identify a possible set of classes/objects in the HMS case study.

Identify possible associations between the identified classes/objects.

Draw a final design model (ready to code) based on a class diagram finalizing attributes, functions, and associations.

Note: Use activity diagrams (that you already created in assignment # 1) and sequence diagrams to finalize your design model.